Pittsburg-New York-Rain. The Chicago champions opened their closing series in this city with the Senators yesterday afternoon, and after a somewhat colorless battle came off first best by a score of 10 to 6. There were about two good plays pulled off during the nine innings, Mertes of the Chicagos and Lee of the Senators making catches of fly balls that called forth applause on account of their exceptional cleverness. The other plays were of the regulation order, and both sides were almost perfect in handling the balls. Sammy Strang made an inglorious muff of Ryan's pop fly in the first inning, which brought on a double play a minute later, and Coughlin made a wild throw to first on Davis' hard hit grounder in the ninth. These were the only errors of the game, and no runs resulted there-

Manager Griffith thought Callahan was about due for a good performance, but took another think after the second inning, when the Senators rapped out five safe bingles and scored as many runs. Roy Patterson was substituted thereafter, and Washington did nothing but hang up blanks until the ninth, when they managed to sneak in one additional run. Manager Loftus se-lected Carrick to do the twirling for Washington and got away from the start badly, four runs being scored. About the time Carrick was due to be yanked out of the box he put on a spurt, struck out Davis and Mertes, and Manager Loftus doubtless thought he had struck his galt. But it was only a flash in the pan, for the White Sox went after "Wee Willie" in the fourth inning and hung up a quartet of tailies be-fore Manager Tom had a chance to act. As the Senators were making no headway against Patterson in the hitting line, Carrick had to stay on the rubber and take his

Strang and Jones drew bases on balls in the first inning and Green's slow infield hit filled the bases. George Davis followed good for three sacks, and the bases were Mertes continued the good work with a single over second, and Davis raced

In the second inning, after Callahan had flied out to Delehanty, Strang hit safely, went to second on Jones' out at first and home on Green's single over second. Green tried to steal second, but was nalled by Clarke's good throw to Keister.

Clarke's good throw to Keister.

After being blanked in the first inning the Senators got very busy in the second, hanging up five runs and tieing the score. Kelster led off with a triple and scored on Coughlin's double. Doyle flied out to Jones, but Ely hit safely into right. Clarke's single into left scored Coughlin, and Carrick's base on balls filled the three sacks. Ryan forced Carrick at scored Fly scorter. Ryan forced Carrick at second, Ely scoring on the play, and Lee's pass to first again filled them up. Delehanty hit a screaming single over second, and Clarke and Ryan raced home. Keister shut off further trou-ble on his second turn at the bat by flying

In the fourth Chicago went to the front with a rush, singles by Isbell, Strang, Jones and Green, coupled with a hit by pitcher, scoring four runs. In the fifth Daly hit for a double and McFarland's single into left brought Tom home. This ended the run-getting for Chicago, four blanks fol-

In the ninth Carrick struck out, but Ryan singled and Lee doubled, the first-named scoring while Delehanty was being put out at first. Keister closed the game with a fiv to Isbell.

CATCHER O'CONNOR SUSPENDED Helping American League Secure

Pittsburg Players. A special from Pittsburg says that Catcher Jack O'Connor of the Pittsburg club has been suspended by President Dreyfuss, being charged with a violation of contract, in that he dickered with Ban Johnson and other American League representatives who went to Pittsburg to secure some of the club's players. Dreyfuss says:

"Tuesday night C. W. Somers, vice president of the American League, came to Pittsburg on a 'gumshoe' mission. With him was President Johnson, who came to aid his partner. O'Connor, I know, visited the depot when they arrived from Cleveland.

"This morning O'Connor appeared at the hotel with one of our unsigned players, and later on with another of our players, whom he conducted to Johnson and Som-ers. Subsequently a meeting was held in a room in Allegheny with two more of our players, with O'Connor again present. "If any of our players choose to leave at the expiration of their contracts, well and good, but I will not stand treachery from anybody while in my employ. No player can be stool pigeon from the American League and draw salary from the Pitts-burg club at the same time." Dreyfuss added that Phillipi, Leever, Doheny, Merritt, Bransfield, Ritchey, Wag-ner, Beaumont, Clarke and Sebring have

 SARATOGA RACES.

Grey Friar Easily Won Grand Union Hotel Stakes. The wheel of chance turned for Frank H.

Hitchcock yesterday at Saratoga, and his two-year-old gelding Grey Friar, by St. George-Una B., won the Grand Union Hotel stakes at the liberal odds of 12 to 1. The day was bright and warm, after a succession of chilly days, and a crowd of 10,000 persons saw the race, which was won rather easily by two lengths, Grey Friar leading all the way and going away at the end. Judith Campbell was second and Whitechapel third. The result of the stake was most unexpected. The Keene stable added Rigodon, who is supposed to be a Futurity in public, though he has started several times, and he and Whitechapel were coupled in the betting at even money and 6 to 5. There seemed to be no good reason for this favoritism, but the pair were heavily backed. Mr. Schorr's fine Esher filly Judith Campbell, winner of the Flash stakes, was neglected at 15 to 1. Charles Elwood and Max Nic were moderately played at sevens and sixes, and there were kinds of prices against the rest. When the barrier went up the tape almost lifted Odom out of his saddle, and Merry Acrobat's chances, if he had any, were gone. Burns rode Grey Friar so hard with his heels that he leaped into the lead in the first six jumps. Then Judith Campbell sifted out of the mob and pressed the leader hard, with Sailmaker and Bounding er hard, with Sailmaker and Bounding Beauty close up. Going around the turn somebody crowded Bullman so badly that he had to take Sailmaker up a bit. Mean-time Landry was waiting for Grey Friar to stop, but Grey Friar refused to oblige him. Instead, it was the filly that stopped, while Burns' mount, with his lighter bur-den reced fleetly on to a contribute. den, raced fleetly on to an easy victory Judith Campbell lasted long enough to beat Whitechapel handly, the Chorister colt coming from the rear with a fair burst of speed. The rest of the field was badly beaten.

The numbers did not go up for several The numbers old not go up for several minutes, and finally the judges sent for Redfern and Landry. It appears that between them they had squeezed Sailmaker so hard that Bullman lost half his boot. After discussing the case, however, the stewards ordered the numbers up as the horses finished. Grey Friar had run two fair races, but he had done nothing to warrant the expectation that he would beat such a field, and he went to the post a such a field, and he went to the post a Inspector Stevens has yet to meet the jumper hereabouts who is his equal. Filon d'Or was nearest him in the selling steeple-chase, but he drew away so easily when Ray asked him that it was plain that he was only playing. Cuspidor seems to life his new name of "Daly" better than he original malodorous cognomen; at least he runs better under it. Yesterday he beat The Rival, an odds-on favorite, at a mile and a furlong. Redfern seemed to be too confident that he could come away whenever he liked and Daly got away from him at the head of the stretch. Mr. Madden does not often get the worst of a horse deal, but it looks as though "Tom" McDowell bested him when he sold him The Rival for $7,500.

Some racegoers are fond of saying when jockeys are being discussed: "Oh, that's all rot. The best horse will always win, with good racing luck. Give me the best horse and you can have the best jockey."

GRAND CIRCUIT TROTS.

Direct Hal Compelled to Lower Record

in Beating Greenline. The grand circuit card at Readville, Mass., yesterday afternoon was the one arranged for Tuesday, and which the rain prevented. The track was sticky, but even with this drawback Direct Hal broke his own record of 2.061/2 and the Norfolk stake record of one-fourth second slower by going the third heat in 2.06.

This race was easily the best of the day. The feature was the whirlwind finish in the second heat between Direct Hal, driven by Geers, and Greenline, the Goshen, Ind., Geers, and Greenline, the Goshen, Ind., horse, driven by Saunders. Geers was obliged to make Direct Hal do the last quarter in 29% seconds to win, and he finished only half a head to the good at that. Geers won two races, the Norfolk purse of $5,000 with Direct Hal and the $1,000 purse for the 2.18 trotters with Prince of Orange. Dan Patch, who is at Readville to go against Star Pointer's famous mile of 1.59% on Saturday, was sent around several times between the heats.

The first race called was the Norfolk 2.24

eral times between the heats.

The first race called was the Norfolk, 2.24 class, pace, for $5,000. There were ten starters, Direct Had being heavily backed at 5 to 1. In the first heat Geers loafed, and Greenline took it easily. The next time Geers found it prudent to drive out, as Greenline was going very fast. At the half Greenline, at the pole, was being overhauled by Direct Hal, and at the three-quarters he was only about a length to the quarters he was only about a length to the good. The finish brought the big crowd upon its toes. Greenline was going like a machine, and it did not seem possible that he could be beaten, but Direct Hal, urged by Geers, gained foot by foot until he went under the wire half a head the winner The third heat was paced in 2.06 flat by Direct Hal, who won the heat and broke the stake record made by Audubon Boy of 2.06%, and also his own record of 2.06%. The time for the quarters was 0.31½, 1.04¼, 1.35¾ and 2.06, the last half being covered The fourth heat saw only the heat win-ners called out, Direct Hal and Greenline. They were sent away looking like a pair, keeping at even strides until the last quarter, when Direct Hal took the lead, and won easily by two lengths.

The second race today will be the great Massachusetts 2.12 trotting race for a prize of $15,000, and fast time is expected, as the track is in excellent condition.

EXTRAORDINARY PROFITS. Saratoga Racing Association Clearing

the Saratoga Association would be out of This represents enormous receipts from the telegraph company for room service throughout the United States, the daily fees of the layers in the ring and the admission moneys after running expenses are deducted. On next Saturday, August 24, the wheels of the "Spa" racing mill will have ground out $258,000, $8,000 more than the amount required to wipe off the in-debtedness incurred in the creation of the new Saratoga. On a big stake day or a plasant Saturday afternoon an average of $18,000 flows into the coffers presided over by Treasurer Andrew Miller.

Last Saturday, for instance, 15,650 people passed through the turnstiles to the club house, the $3 inclosures and the 50-cent field. That meant in the neighborhood of $30,000 in admissions. Other sources of income contributed proportionately. No better illustration of the magnitude of the game here is available than Joe Ullman's statement of his daily operations. Ullman s one of the very first line of layers. He handles over $125,000 a day, winning or osing on an average $25,000. In the entire ring over $2.500,000 is generally handled. With clear racing days during the final week the association will clear up about $60,000 and have a surplus after paying its debt and a 5 per cent dividend to stockholders. This pleasant state of affairs is gratifying to horsemen and all true well-wishers of the turf. The revenue of the association does not go to the individual aggrandizement of its members, but directly into the pockets of breeders and man developing the best horses, of course coming in for the lion's share.

This is in line with the principle of the Saratoga association's policy. A notable fact is that President W. C. Whitney, Vice President F. R. Hitchcock, Treasurer An drew Miller and Secretary Harry K. Knapp contribute their time and labor without re-muneration. Their recompense exists in the knowledge that Saratoga will some day be regarded as the greatest racing seat in Heidrick Badly Hurt.

Emmet Heidrick, the crack center fielder, was more seriously injured in Tuesday's game at Baltimore than was at first sup posed, and it is now declared by the attending surgeons that he will be compelled to retire permanently from the base ball game. This information was conveyed in special dispatches to St. Louis papers last night from Baltimore.

It develops that Heidrick snapped a tendon in his right leg when sprinting after a long fly headed for his territory. In running across the field he stumbled on an uneven piece of ground, and his underpinning gave out entirely and he was forced to retire.

have fought their way to the forefront of the American League battle. Illness, in-juries and court proceedings held them back and proved a powerful handscap to success. Still they fought on, and, by good, hard, clean playing, combined with the grit of the bulldog, they have overcome all obstacles, and their success, whether it be temporary or permanent, has been well deserved. Manager Frank Dwyer of the Detroit manager Frank Dwyer of the Detroit team saw the Cincinnati-Boston game from the grandstand. "Of course, it would be foolish to say that McGuire, Mercer and myself are here for our health, for we are not," said he. "We are looking to get play-ers, and I think our trip will be a success, No. I won't say what we want but No. I won't say what we want, but you can bet it's not a groundkeeper. We expect to be here for a day or so yet. I think that the National League will be greatly surprised when went. the National League will be greatly sur-prised when we put our forces on the field next year. We have captured some of the best talent in this league, and there will be a few surprises all around when next spring comes. Just wait and see. This is the time for the ball players to get the money, and we are paying it." When asked if he had signed Crawford Dayson et al. if he had signed Crawford, Dwyer said that he had not. In fact, he said that he was not after any of the Reds. Notwithstanding this denial it is known that he either has secured Crawford or has exacted a promise from him to sign with the Detroit club.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Newport's Mixed Architecture.

The cottages of Newport afford a strange commentary upon the contrasting tastes of the American nation. Their heterogeneity were impossible in a race of settled culture. in a race of common blood, in a country of limited extent. But the United States is a nation of nations. Its people are not Americans, but Englishmen and Scotsmen. Frenchmen and Germans, Italians and Spaniards of the third or fourth or tenth generation. Their taste in architecture is a taste that was born on the sunny Mediterranean shore, in cozy Normandy orchards, in classic Spain and Italy, in baronial Scotiand and England. It is revealed in the chateaux, the castles, the villas, the loggias of Newport. Seville and Welbeck, Florence and Falaise here stand side by side on the same strip of grass, separated
